

School of Journalism in Berdyansk

For eight days, journalists and bloggers from the southern and eastern regions of Ukraine have been working on the development of professional knowledge and critical perception of information. Sunny and interesting days with creative and experienced trainers pushing beyond the comfort zone.